Workshop Description

This workshop is designed for the gynecologic oncologist who is versed in basic laparoscopic techniques, is familiar with open techniques and wants to advance his/her oncologic laparoscopic techniques. The didactic sessions address a review of retroperitoneal anatomy and several surgical techniques with emphasis on "how to" perform the operations. The presentations are geared to offer detailed practical information not included in surgical textbooks or atlases. The hands-on sessions consists of the performance of the operations on cadavers, duplicating an OR environment. Experienced faculty will be available for the hands-on sessions.

Course Objectives

At the completion of this workshop, the practicing physician will be able to:

- 1) Identify the anatomy and techniques to access lateral pelvic spaces.
- 2) Describe techniques for parametrial ureteral dissection.
- 3) Select patients with cervical cancer for trachelectomy.
- 4) Discuss benefits and results of laparoscopy for patients with endometrial cancer.
- 5) Discuss applications of laparoscopy for patients with ovarian cancer.

Target Audience

This educational program is designed for gynecologic oncologists and practitioners of women's health care including gynecologists, fellows, and residents.
